WITNESSED IN LOSS OF SLURRED MEMORY
one or more witnesses

Witnessing aspects of the environment, the inhabitants, the situation as recordings of what already has been—one aspect at a time—from one or more positions, locations—stationary and/or mobile—one after another, in close succession, with long stretches of time in between or otherwise.